ACHIEVEMENT OF DEPARTMENT IN BRIEF:

Since opening of the college in 1972, Department of English has remained value contributing department to the college and to the vicinity of the Ambajogai Taluka. The devoted faculty developed teaching learning culture which has created special interest among the students to learn English language and literature. Majority of the students come from poor, rural, backward background. Generally found fear for learning English among the students, the faculty entirely washed out the fear from the minds of the students. So, every year we receive good results. Our students brightly shined in the merit lists of the University. A student named Swapnil Mukundrao Rajpankhe raised the name of the Department and College in the university by bringing the First Rank among the five top scores of the university at graduation level in 2014.
